

DR. COLEMAN TALKS TO HIGH SCHOOL

Tells of Incidents in Connection With Father and Sons Week.

W. C. Coleman, member of the International committee of the Y. M. C. A. gave a forcible address at the South Bend High school Monday afternoon. Mr. Coleman is an eloquent speaker. He has spent considerable time with the Y. M. C. A. speaking in all the principal cities of the United States. His experience gave him wonderful material for his talks. He was a chaplain in the Spanish-American war and again in the last war, spending two and a half years overseas with the American army.

His talk was full of these stories and of his experiences with the men and boys of this country. The great need as he sees it today for the American boy is the influence of the real American home. That influence has been changed very materially in the last few years because of the rapidity with which we are living. Speaking of this he said that a short time ago he was in a New England city sitting in a room above a certain bank waiting for a father and son banquet to begin when a certain man knocked and opened the door and asked if it would be possible for them to furnish a boy for him for the banquet. The Y. M. C. A. secretary said certainly. After the man went out the secretary turned to Mr. Coleman and said: the man is president of the bank and has two boys of his own but that he is not close enough to either of them to take them to the banquet. He said that was the trouble with a good many American homes that the fathers were not close enough to their boys to help them in any way. This is the purpose of the Father and Son banquet, to attempt to get fathers and sons together and to renew their interests in each other. Especially to get fathers to realize that if their boys are to have the best chances in the world that they must help them.

The Father and Son Banquet to be held in South Bend has this primary motive. Their will be a good time, a time when Dads will be kids again but back of it all will lie this motive to get and keep their relationship with their sons closer in every way. This banquet will take place in the Big Gymnasium at the Y. M. C. A. Monday night, Nov. 13.

Tri-C Club Buys 100

Tickets for Big Banquet

The High School club at a dinner Monday evening heard Dr. W. C. Coleman speak. W. W. Borden introduced the speaker, who spoke on the general theme of the Father and Son week as being conducted by the Y. M. C. A. boys' division. He emphasized again the need of parent and boy getting together and understanding one another better in every way. After his address the club voted to take 100 tickets and have a Tri-C table at the Father and Son banquet to be held at the Y. M. C. A. Monday, Nov. 13th.

Insurgent Snipers Fan War Flame In Irish Free State

BY GEORGE MACDONAGH.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent).

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—Open rebellion against the Irish Free State flared up in Dublin last night.

Insurgent snipers from alleyways ambushed three lorry loads of national troops in Angier st. and many pedestrians were wounded in an exchange of volleys and a subsequent stampede to safety.

A considerable rebel force attacked Porto Bello barracks where Free State troops repulsed the onslaught.

The office of the Irish Independent was bombed.

This activity followed a proclamation signed by Eamonn De Valera, who again assumed his erstwhile title of "president of the Irish Republic" and declared his followers would fight until exterminated rather than cooperate with the Free State government.

Mary MacSwiney, sister of the Lord Mayor of Cork, has gone on a hunger strike, following her arrest.

"I do not know if they will let me die," Miss MacSwiney wrote, in a letter made public by De Valera's aides, "but if they do, pray for me that I shall have courage to go through with it."

J. Fallon, Harry Schelenberg, and Joe Erdely.

Frank Dow, also intoxicated, was given 30 minutes to leave town.

The case of Thurman Dice, held for speeding and that of Alvin Price charged with having an improper license and an automobile without title, was continued until Dec. 8.

John Schock and John Armstrong, both being held as gay husbands, will be given a hearing Nov. 16, as will Charles Betz and Victor Olson, both of whom face burglary charges.

MONARCHISTS REVOLT.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(By U. P.)—A monarchist revolt, led by Gen.

Ludendorff, is imminent in Bavaria, according to a Central News dispatch from Berlin today.

Mrs. Bertrand Is Well and Happy As A Girl

"Before I took Tanlac I was so run down I could hardly do my housework, but now I can sweep and iron and bake and take care of baby without feeling a bit of weariness," this statement was made recently, by Mrs. B. Bertrand, 1235 Calumet Ave., Hammond, Ind.

"I had no appetite and my stomach was so disordered that even after the lightest meal gas would form and almost suffocate me. My nerves were running wild so I couldn't sleep well and all during the day I was troubled with headaches and dizzy spells."

"My health was simply being wrecked, and when one of the neighbors recommended Tanlac I lost no time in getting a bottle. All at once my appetite started up, my stomach trouble disappeared and I have finished my third bottle feeling like a new person. My nerves are no longer topsy-turvy and I am so well and happy that I just feel like singing all day long."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.
